CATHOLIC CHARITIES

As we all continue to navigate the COVID-19 health crisis, Catholic Charities is proud to continue serving those most in need in Western New York. Throughout the past month, Catholic Charities has worked to keep providing the most essential services like food and clothing, mental health counseling and substance abuse treatment. If you would like to join us in our mission of serving those most in need, especially during this challenging time, please support the annual Appeal. Donations can be made online at <https://www.cwny.org/donation> or mailed to 741 Delaware Ave., Buffalo, NY 14209, Attn.: Appeal Department. Your gift helps bring life-sustaining support, hope and healing. Please reach out if you have a need to 716-218-1400 or go to www.cwny.org. Think of Me.

From readings such as today's Gospel, we also see that in his resurrected body, Jesus seems to be free of physical constraints. He appears to the disciples despite the fact that the doors were locked.

Jesus greets his disciples with the gift of peace and the gift of the Holy Spirit. In doing so, Jesus commissions his disciples to continue the work that he has begun: "As the Father has sent me, so I send you." During the meeting, Jesus also shows the integral connection between forgiveness of sins and the gift of the Holy Spirit.

The story of Thomas illustrates our Christian experience today: We are called to believe without seeing. In fact, all Christians after the first witnesses have been called to believe without seeing. Thomas's doubt is hardly surprising; the news of Jesus' appearance was incredible to the disciples who had seen him crucified and buried. Thomas's human nature compelled him to want hard evidence that the Jesus who appeared to the disciples after his death was indeed the same Jesus who had been crucified. Thomas is given the opportunity to act on that desire. He is our witness that Jesus is really risen.

Our faith is based on the witness of the Church that has preceded us, beginning with Thomas and the first disciples. Through Baptism we receive the same Holy Spirit that Jesus brought to the first disciples. We are among those who are "blessed" because we believe without having seen.
